Ooops, our mistake. In the Spring 2004 Newsletter we reported the death of Albert O. Wilkat, Pilot 2nd TrpCarSq., 443rd Gp., Dinjan, Shingbwiyang, 6/44 - 08/45. This report was grossly exaggerated. Albert reported in and advised he wanted all of his friends to know he was alive and well. Our most sincere apologies to Albert.

A Funny One

An old farmer in Kansas had owned a large farm for several years. He had a large pond in the back, fixed up nice, picnic tables, horseshoe courts, and some apple and peach trees. The pond was properly shaped and fixed for swimming when it was built.

One evening the old farmer decided to go down to the pond, as he hadn't been there for a while, and look it over. He grabbed a five gallon bucket to bring back some fruit. As he neared the pond, he heard voices shouting and laughing with glee.

As he came closer he saw it was a bunch of young women skinny-dipping in his pond. He made the women aware of his presence and they all went to the deep end of the pond.

One of the women shouted to him, "We're not coming out until you leave!" The old man frowned, "I didn't come down here to watch you ladies swim naked or make you get out of the pond naked." Holding the bucket up he said, "I'm here to feed the alligator."

Moral: Old age and cunning will triumph over youth and enthusiasm every time.

Answer to Picture Puzzle on Page 38:

This picture is an illusion. Both aircraft landed safely on their own runways. It was taken from a long distance away with a telescopic lens. Actually the aircraft were landing on parallel runways and their lateral separation was standard for a parallel runway operation.
