

Summer 2004

considerate of the enlisted men. He wants you to be as comfortable as he is. If you have worked hard, he will give you his own bed to sleep on. When we carried him to USA in 1944, he gave us $20.00 we did not want it, but he insisted so we stacked the plane with the best grub we could find.

This letter all adds up too. We never stood short in Japan. Had swell car, ate plenty, stole plenty, explored plenty, and had a very enjoyable trip although it was short.
